

PD ACITIVITIES

Regular PD Activities are held every Friday for the development of students. The main aim of PD Activities is to wipe out the fear within the students and motivate them to come out of their shells of compatibility. In this generally activities like debate, group discussions, general knowledge quiz, just a minute are performed to Improve linguistic and communication skills along with the increase I.Q. level. Students who are introvert and hesitant to open of due to their flows are encouraged and given an opportunity to reach the heights of the improvement in their respective draw backs. Thus this department MHRM has taken all measures for the development in all sections. It also took the initiative to indulge in the social welfare activity in organizing clean and green activity to create awareness that the environment we are living need to be protected and safeguarded. Thus MHRM has created a myth among the students to widen the status in career front.
